Title:	Bhilai woman succumbs to swine flu in district Drug, Chhattisgarh
Action By CSU, IDSP -NCDC	Information communicated to DSU- Drug, SSU-Chhattisgarh

A 47-year-old woman succumbed to swine flu in Bhilai. She had been unwell since February 10 with symptoms of pneumonia and was admitted to a private hospital on February 14. The victim's blood report had confirmed H1N1 infection recently.

The deceased was identified as Shakun Sahu, a resident of Contractor Colony, Supela.

After her condition deteriorated, she was admitted to BM Shah hospital in Supela on February 14. Her blood sample was sent to Mumbai for examination after which the subsequent report confirmed H1N1 infection on Monday.

The woman succumbed on Monday night itself. On receiving information, a team of district health department reached the hospital and waived off the deceased's medical bills.
